"Old Bonhomme Church"

White & Conway Road, Chesterfield,
St. Louis County, Mo.

This building was erected in the year 1815. This was the First Presbyterian Church west of the Mississippi river. It was considered the finest Church in the Mississippi Valley.

The Church was erected under the supervision of the First Pastor, Dr. Artemus Bullard.

Governor Bates and other famous men were members of this Church.

The first day school in this district was in the basement of the building.

Rev. Louis Phile is now in charge of the Church.

This is a one story gray stone structure.

Information received from: Pioneer County Settlers, by Rene Paul.

EUGENE L. PLISITSCH.
